

INVITATION

The Austrian-Canadian Society

Announces its Fourth Annual

Charity Hockey Match in Vienna

Where: Albert Schultz Eishalle in Vienna (Attemsgasse 1, 1220 Vienna, U-Bahn Kagran, near the Vienna International School) on

Thursday 10 November 2011

Warm-up starts 18:00; the game is from 19:00 to 20:50.

Special Feature:

- His Excellency, Ambassador John Barrett, Canada's Ambassador to Austria, will play as captain of one of the teams. <

Players compete in a friendly match – ‘gentlemen’s rules’ – followed by a reception and drinks, all in aid of raising funds to benefit initiatives of the Austrian-Canadian Society¹, including the Sunday morning “Hockey for kids” programme.

Invitations are being extended to members of Vienna’s diplomatic, international organizations and business community.

This is to invite you, and any hockey-playing colleagues and friends – men and

¹ The Austrian-Canadian-Society is a bilateral friendship society with the aim to promote and strengthen the bilateral relationship between Austria and Canada in various fields. women - to play in the match. Available places on the two teams will be allotted on a 'first-come first-served' basis, so please contact us as soon as possible to secure your place on a team. Previous years' matches have provided great evenings of hockey and socialising, and this year promises to be even better!

Players are asked to make a donation to the Society (suggested donation is €100 per player). Additional contributions are gratefully accepted. All funds raised go to the Austrian-Canadian Society to promote the initiatives mentioned above.

What you get:

- Three hours ice time (including warm-up)
- Use of team sweaters for the game (plus you can purchase your jersey after if you want)
- Referee and linesman
- Drinks reception in the Capitals' VIP Lounge following the Match

Spectators are kindly welcomed again this year and their contributions are greatly appreciated as well.

What you need: your own full hockey protective gear, including helmet, and of course a hockey stick. Team sweaters will be provided.

'Game day' is approaching fast > to secure your place in the Match please contact either
