EXCLUSIVE GUIDED TOUR FOR SOCIETY MEMBERS!

FRIDAY, JUNE 2, 2017 18:00

Canadian photographer Edward Burtynsky became world-famous with his breathtaking large-format photographs of landscapes shaped by human hand, industrial premises, and major conurbations. The KUNST HAUS WIEN is dedicating Austria's first comprehensive solo exhibition to this artist who, for more than thirty years now, has put his talents at the 'service of a culture of sustainability'. The exhibition showcases Burtynsky's current work cycle on a topic of global relevance: water as a precious resource, as an element of our everyday lives vital to our bodies and our planet, and as the wellspring of life itself. For his series of works entitled WATER, Burtynsky travelled across five continents to explore ecological extremes and capture water resources as well as the ways in which it is used, distributed and wasted.

Space is limited, this is a Society, no-fee invitation!

Please register with Patti Vogrig secretarygeneral@austria-canada.com

Friday, June 2, 18:00 Member Svetlana Shuster will greet you in the foyer!
KUNST HAUS WIEN, Untere Weißgerberstraße 13, 1030 Wien

This is Shakespeare's greatest and last pure comedy, the master at the height of his art. The play explores the great obsessions of human life: love, jealousy, class, gender, greed and passion. And if it explores the serious within us it also revels in merriment: drinking has a key place in the play as does song and laughter in all its forms from melancholy wit to slapstick comedy.

Nothing is what it seems: life and love collide and create a comedy of errors that spreads confusion even as it reveals the essential truth of human nature: perhaps nothing is what it appears to be, but beneath appearances the truth will out and the truth is very much to do with love.

The American Drama Group Europe's Castle Tour is in Vienna for one production only Thursday June 29, 2017 19:00 with an open air performance of Twelfth Night, in the Stadtpalais Lichtenstein - Bankgasse 9, 1010 Wien. (not Palais Lichtenstein in the 9th district)

This is a Society subsidized event!, Members 10€, non-members 25€. Please register with Karen Conoley vicepresident@austria-canada.com
